

REFERRAL FORM

BEFORE COMPLETING THIS FORM PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

An agency is not required to complete this form if the place is already entered in the State Register of Heritage Places, or if that agency has already received written advice from the Department of Planning, Lands and Heritage regarding the outcome of the Heritage Council's consideration of the place.

If the Heritage Council requested a full assessment, the Government Heritage Property Disposal Process will need to be continued and a full assessment will need to be commissioned.

When completing this form, please refer to the Government Heritage Property Disposal Process brochure, available at www.dplh.wa.gov.au

Ensure all sections are addressed as incomplete referral forms may be returned for completion.

For further information on the referral and assessment process, please read the State Register of Heritage Places brochure available at www.dplh.wa.gov.au

If a registered place is being considered for demolition, please contact the Director, Heritage Development at the Department of Planning, Lands and Heritage.

If a registered place is being considered for disposal, please contact the Legal Services team at the Department of Planning, Lands and Heritage.

What type of place should be considered?

Buildings and structures NOT entered in the State Register of Heritage Places will generally need to be referred under the Government Heritage Property Disposal Process if they:

- are more than 60 years old
- are already listed on an existing heritage list such as a local government inventory (Municipal Inventory)
- display other evidence of potential significance in terms of aesthetic, historic, social or scientific value.
